

Media Release

Date: 11 August 2011

LOCAL ARTISTS HAVE SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT

Local Art to Crow About exhibition celebrates the skills and artistic abilities of people with a disability. It is the result of twelve months of hard work by many clients from Skills Options Kurrajong Waratah.

Now in its eighth year, this wonderful show is a tribute to the creativity of the participants with a disability across a wide range of different media, including paintings, drawings, printmaking and photography. All works are for sale, and proceeds from this exhibition go directly to the artists.

Art to Crow About will be launched at the E3 art space, on the banks of Wollundry Lagoon, on Thursday the 9th August. The exhibition launch will be accompanied by a performance by the Twilight Dance Troupe of the Butoh dance 'Stand By Me', directed by Fernando Whittaker-Roa.

The exhibition will be open to the public from Thursday the 9th of August until Saturday 18th August. All are welcome to come along and help celebrate the diverse talents on display!

Kurrajong Waratah and the artists appreciate the support given by the Phil & Joan Millard Trust Fund and the staff of Wagga Wagga City Council and the Art Gallery for their assistance.
